

Nights of Stories

As the days are getting shorter and the nights darker, good times for lightning candles, drinking warm cups of tea and telling stories are approaching.

Stories have been told since times immemorial and for deeper reasons than mere entertainment. Perhaps the first stories were told when shamans returned from their journeys into non-ordinary realities and told about their experiences to the tribe sitting around the fire...

In modern times, it was C G Jung and his successors in archetypal psychology who discovered that stories contain symbols of the psyche and hold blueprints for life itself.

During our monthly “Nights of Stories,” we will dwell deeply into stories from all around the world, finding the archetypal patterns within and their relevance for our own lives.

Please, come and join us if you enjoy cosy nights, deep conversations and learning more about the mysteries of our existence.

When? - Sunday, October 6, 5 pm (first session and then monthly)

Where? - Budapest, 1081, Népszínház u. 24/3rd floor/Door Nr. 5

To come in, ring “Link4Growth” downstairs or use “33 key 7489” at the entrance bell.

Suggested Donation - HUF 2000,-

All the donations will go towards the maintenance of the premises, my friend’s Chris Ogle’s flat in Budapest, which he dedicated to “Link4Growth,” a non-profit organisation to enable people meeting each other and have evolutionary, educational events.

Please register via email – places are limited.

Looking forward to welcoming you there,
peace and blessings from

Viktória

Phone: +36 70 2345665

Email: viktoriaduda@gmx.net

Website: www.viktoriaduda.com